

Über die Veranstaltung Congress Venue

The 4th International Equine Congress of the German Veterinary Medical Society (GVMS-DVG) will take place from October 16 to 17, 2020, in Berlin, Germany.

We are highly delighted to invite you to this unique event in one of the most attractive cities in Germany. Speakers from Europe and overseas will present a broad and exciting scientific and educational programme.

The 4th International Equine Congress of GVMS will be organised under the umbrella of the DVG-Vet-Congress. We are expecting more than 100 companies to exhibit their latest products and services at the Vet Fair.

The Estrel Berlin is Europe's largest convention, entertainment and hotel complex. With 1,125 rooms and suites, five restaurants, two bars and a summer garden, the Estrel has plenty to offer to every guest.

Berlin - capital city, political, cultural, scientific and media center and one of the most exciting and interesting cities of the world! Come and visit Berlin - we are looking forward to welcoming you!
